POTENTIAL ANTHROPOLOGY ISP SUPERVISORS

Note: some staff members may not be available next year due to research leave.

Dr Lori Allen (la22@soas.ac.uk; 588): human rights; nationalism; the United Nations; investigative commissions; political epistemologies; international law; anthropology of violence; political anthropology; historical anthropology; Palestine and the Middle East.

Prof Paul Basu (paul.basu@soas.ac.uk; 568): material culture; cultural landscape; cultural memory; heritage; historicity; history of anthropology; colonialism; museum anthropology; exhibition practice; visual anthropology; migration and diaspora; culture and development; West Africa.

Dr Orkideh Behrouzan (ob8@soas.ac.uk; 589): anthropology of medicine, science, and technology; interrelation between socio-historical and psychological processes, primarily in relation to mental health, social ruptures, memory, and subjectivity; Iran and the Middle East.

Dr Catherine Dolan (cd17@soas.ac.uk; 567): corporations and capitalism, international development, moral economies, corporate social responsibility, enterprise and entrepreneurialism, inclusive markets, consumption and commodities, politics and practices of food governance, gender; East Africa.

Dr Fabio Gygi (fg5@soas.ac.uk; 562): material culture, medical anthropology, psychiatric classification (esp hoarding), science and technology studies, gender, cultural history; Japanese society.

Dr Stephen Hughes (sh27@soas.ac.uk; 558): popular cinema, media theory, historical anthropology and visual anthropology, and religion, media and politics; India, especially the Tamil-speaking south, and Sri Lanka.

Dr Elizabeth Hull (eh17@soas.ac.uk; 551): economic anthropology; anthropology of the state & institutions, bureaucracy, agriculture; livelihoods; health; nutrition; politics of food systems, food acquisition and consumption practices; South Africa.

Dr Marloes Janson (mj19@soas.ac.uk; 580): anthropology of religion, religious reform (Islam and Pentecostalism), transnational religious networks (Tabligh Jama’at), faith-based development, urban anthropology, popular culture, gender, youth; West Africa (the Gambia, Senegal and Nigeria).

Dr Jakob Klein (jk2@soas.ac.uk; 564): anthropology of food; consumption; regional cuisines; local speciality foods; urban society and the urban/rural divide; food commodity chains; borderlands; food and environment; food safety and risk; meat-eating and vegetarianism; ethnicity and local identities; socialist and postsocialist societies; China (South).

Dr Kevin Latham (kl1@soas.ac.uk; 565): Chinese media, newspapers, television, journalism, popular culture, Internet and telecommunications, theatre, anthropological knowledge, practice and performance; China - Hong Kong and Guangdong Province (PRC).

Dr Naomi Leite (nl15@soas.ac.uk; 591): sociality, belonging, and exclusion across cultural domains and scales; the self; ancestry, kinship, and relatedness; psychological states and mental health; tourism; heritage; interspecies ethnography; language and thought. Europe; zones of tourism encounter; global flows and imaginaries.

Prof David Mosse (dm21@soas.ac.uk; 573): anthropology of mental health and cultural psychiatry, anthropology of Christianity, popular religion, environmental history and natural resources management, anthropology of development and activism, dalit politics; India, especially Tamil Nadu and adivasi western India.

Dr Kostas Retsikas (kr1@soas.ac.uk; 552): the anthropology of personhood, social theory and poststructuralism, religion (especially Islam), the anthropology of the gift and of Islamic economics; Indonesia and South East Asia.

Dr Ruba Salih (ruba.salih@soas.ac.uk; 471): Islamic feminism, secular and religious women’s movements in the Middle East, transnational migration and gender, multiculturalism and citizenship, globalization, diaspora and refugee studies; gender, Islam and modernity in the Middle East and Europe; the Palestine question.

Prof Edward Simpson (es7@soas.ac.uk; B400): social theory and the Indian Ocean; disaster and reconstruction anthropology; post-colonial rural change; infrastructure development in South Asia; ethnography of western India.

Dr Gabriele Vom Bruck (gb19@soas.ac.uk; 585): elites, memory, religion and politics; Middle East with emphasis on the Arabian Peninsular (especially Yemen).

Dr Damian Walter (dw4@soas.ac.uk; 572): shamanism and ritual practice; anthropological theory, past and present; Nepal.

There may be other staff members available to supervise for 2020/21. This list includes permanent staff only.