

Researching Chinese Legal History in Europe: The State of the Field Workshop

Thursday 4 to Friday 5 June 2015

G3, SOAS, University of London

Programme

DAY ONE (Thursday, 4 June)

10.00 – 10.30	Registration
10.30 – 10.40	Opening Remarks: Ernest Caldwell (SOAS, University of London)
10.40 – 11.40	PANEL 1 Chair: Paul O'Connell (SOAS, University of London) Frederic Constant (Paris X Nanterre University) Compensation in Chinese Law, Past and Present Roger Greatrex (Lund University, Sweden) False Accusation and its Judicial Consequences during the reign of the Qianlong Emperor
11.40 – 12.00	Break
12.00 – 13.00	PANEL 2 Chair: Bernhard Fuehrer (SOAS, University of London) Ernest Caldwell (SOAS, University of London) Hunting the Xiezhai: Mythography, Historiography, and Chinese Legal Iconography

	Cecile Wang (École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales) The Legal System from the 7th to the 10th centuries, a study of Judge Cui figure
13:00 – 14.30	Lunch break
14.30 – 15.30	ROUNDTABLE ONE Chair: Carol Tan (SOAS, University of London) Collecting Laws: The Status of Chinese Legal History Collections in European Institutions
15:30 – 16:00	Discussion

DAY TWO (Friday, 5 June)

10.00 – 11.30	PANEL 3 Chair: Carol Tan (SOAS, University of London) Fernanda Pirie (University of Oxford) Tibetan law and legal ideologies: socio-historical themes Jennifer Altehenger (Kings College London) Putting Laws on Paper in early Communist China Rogier Creemers (University of Oxford) The Past Is a Different Country - Longitudinal Developments in Chinese Press Law
11.30 – 11.50	Break
11.50 – 12.50	ROUNDTABLE TWO Chair: Michel Hockx (SOAS, University of London) The Future of Chinese Legal History in Europe