Terms and Conditions

A thesis which is accepted for the award of a research degree is deposited in SOAS Library as follows:

- A searchable record is created in the SOAS Library Catalogue for all PhD theses
- A printed copy is available for any researcher to consult in SOAS Special Collections Reading Room with readers able to photograph up to 5% of the thesis or one chapter, whichever is the greatest, for private non-commercial research only
- A digital copy may be added to SOAS Research Online (the School's institutional repository) and made available online according to the author's wishes indicated on the appropriate SOAS Thesis Submission Form (Please note that doctoral researchers starting from 2016 onwards are expected to make their thesis available in SOAS Research Online either immediately or 3 years after the PhD is awarded)
- SOAS PhD theses will also be indexed in the British Library EThOS service. SOAS will not provide EThOS with a digital copy of PhD theses while the digital copy is on restricted access in SOAS Research Online.
- The copyright of the thesis is retained by the author
- PhD theses are added to SOAS Research Online with a cover sheet which includes the following statement:
 - Copyright © and Moral Rights for this PhD Thesis are retained by the author and/or other copyright owners. A copy can be downloaded for personal non-commercial research or study, without prior permission or charge. This PhD Thesis cannot be reproduced or quoted extensively from without first obtaining permission in writing from the copyright holder/s. The content must not be changed in any way or sold commercially in any format or medium without the formal permission of the copyright holders. When referring to this PhD Thesis, full bibliographic details including the author, title, awarding institution and date of the PhD Thesis must be given e.g. AUTHOR (year of submission) "Full PhD Thesis title", name of the School or Department, PhD PhD Thesis, pagination.
- It is the author's responsibility to ensure that any of the above conditions does not infringe the rights of any third party (e.g. you have permission to share the material for which you don't own the copyright and you have fully anonymized any personal information of your research participants or collected informed consent to include it and make it available as described above)
- In the event of the thesis being not approved by the examiners, this form would become void.
