

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Residential School 2019

Governance for Development in Africa Initiative

Organised by:

Centre of African Studies, SOAS-University of London

Supported by:

Mo Ibrahim Foundation

The Mo Ibrahim Foundation in association with SOAS and the Centre of African Studies-University of London is organising a one-week Residential School, date/place tbc on the topic of 'Governance and Development in Africa'.

The residential school is for 20 participants who are policy makers, academics, researchers or civil society representatives from any African country who will gain, through this training, new ideas and knowledge on the broad issue of governance and development. We welcome applications from a wide range of backgrounds.

Applicants should have at least an MSc degree in areas related to Governance or 5 years professional experiences in fields relevant to the theme of Governance and Development in Africa.

The official language of the School is English.

All costs for successful applicants, including economy flights, visa costs, accommodation and meal, will be covered. No per diem.

Applications should include:

1. 2 page max CV (including email address for correspondence)
2. One reference letter (can be emailed directly by referee to ab17@soas.ac.uk)
3. Proposal of max 1000 words outlining research interest and/or professional background and how the applicant will benefit from attending the Residential School

Deadline for applications: 31 December 2018

To be sent electronically:

Angelica Baschiera

Centre of African Studies

SOAS -University of London

Thornough Street, Russell Square

London WC1H 0XG

Email: ab17@soas.ac.uk