Synopsis

Russian Beginners 3 aims to provide students with a basic knowledge of Russian and focuses on the acquisition of practical communicative skills. Following Russian Beginners 1 and 2, this course continues to cover basic grammar and vocabulary, allowing students to communicate in Russian in real, everyday situations.

The course is taught in Russian and develops the four skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing, with the main emphasis on speaking. Students engage in interactive language activities, participating in projects, group and pair work to practice vocabulary, expressions, grammar and structures. There will be an overview, consolidation and feedback session in the final week, concentrating on material covered during the course.

By the end of the course, the student will be equipped with the necessary skills and knowledge to progress to a Russian language course at Level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.
