

ZOROASTRIAN SUMMER SCHOOL

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Definitions

Any term used in these terms and conditions will have the same meaning as set out below:

“we” “us” “our” “SOAS” or “The School” means SOAS University of London

“you” or “your” are references to the applicant

“Course” means the Zoroastrian Summer School

“Application Fee” means the fee payable on submitting an application form to be considered for enrolment on a Course

“Offer” means an invitation to enter into contractual relations with SOAS, consisting of the written Conditional Offer sent to the named applicant setting out the details of their Course and Fees payable

“Course Information” means the information available on the Course website

“Contract” means the legally binding contract between us and you for the provision of the Course in accordance with these terms and conditions, including the contents of the Offer Letter to you

“Intellectual Property” means any materials created by us including but not limited to Course materials provided to you by us in advance of or during the course

“writing” or “written” means any form of written communication, including emails

We are SOAS, located in Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London, WC1H 0XG.

These terms and conditions apply to the enrolment of applicants on the Zoroastrian Summer School, which is listed under: <https://www.soas.ac.uk/institute-of-zoroastrian-studies/summer-school/>. Both parties are bound by these terms and conditions upon acceptance by us of an application for such enrolment.

1. Agreement with SOAS

- 1.1. The purpose of these terms and conditions is to set out the basis for your relationship with SOAS when you apply for a SOAS Course.
- 1.2 Your agreement with SOAS is made up of these terms and conditions, your Offer, the Course Information and full payment of the Fees as set out in section 3.
- 1.3 Please read these terms and conditions carefully before you submit your application to us. These tell you who we are, how we will provide the Course to you, how you and we may change or end the agreement, what to do if there is a problem, and other important information. If you think that there is a mistake in these terms and conditions, please contact us to discuss.
- 1.4 We are SOAS, a body incorporated by Royal Charter in England and Wales and an exempt charity. Our principal address is Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London, WC1H 0XG. Our registered VAT number is GB 233 674657.
- 1.5 You can contact us by writing to us by email at SSPIZS@soas.ac.uk
- 1.6 If we have to contact you during the admissions process we will do so by writing to you at the email address you provided to us in your application.
- 1.7 Your application form will be a request by you to be considered to attend the Course in accordance with these terms and conditions.
- 1.8 Our acceptance of your enrolment will take place when we email you to confirm that we have received full payment of the Application Fee as set out in section 3 below, at which point a contract will come into existence between you and us.
- 1.9 If we are unable to accept your application, we will inform you by writing to you at the email address you provided to us in your application.

2. Admissions

Applications for enrolment on the course must be completed electronically and returned to the email address given. We are able to accept paper applications only if there are circumstances where you need to do so; please let us know in advance.

There are a limited number of places available on the course, meaning that not all applicants will be given an Offer. Applications will be assessed on level of previous study and / or professional experience, and the quality of the application.

Admission decisions are made by SOAS and / or Bergen at their discretion. If we are unable to accept your application, we will inform you by writing to you at the email address you provided to us in your application. If we accept your application, you will be written to and requested to pay the Application Fee in order to enrol on the Course.

The School reserves the right to accept late applications at its discretion.

All questions on the application form are to be answered truthfully and all attachments need to reflect the truth. You confirm this upon submitting your application form. If you have provided us with information which is later found to be untruthful, the School reserves the right to reject your application or withdraw the acceptance of such an application at any time. No refund of Fees will be granted in such cases and no costs, including but not limited to travel arrangements, will be reimbursed as further detailed in Clause 10 – Limitation of Liability, below.

All our admission decisions are final, but you do have a right to complain, details of how to make a complaint are set out in section 14 below. We will not reimburse any costs, including but not limited to travel arrangements, as further detailed in Clause 10 – Limitation of Liability, below.

3. Fees

If you receive an offer, you must pay the £40 Application Fee within 10 working days.

If full payment of the Application Fee has not been received by the School within 10 days after us sending you the Offer then we may withdraw our offer by emailing you in writing.

We are only able to accept payments through our online store. A link to the online store will be sent via email with the Offer.

All payments of Fees must be made in pounds sterling and are inclusive of VAT and other taxes where applicable. Any currency conversion costs or other charges incurred in connection with the payment of Fees are to be paid in addition to the Fees. No deduction from the Fees for such costs or charges may be made.

4. Cancellations and Non-attendance

a. Cancellation by the School

We may only cancel a Course if:

1. there are not enough applicants enrolled on the Course and it is not viable for us to run the course. The minimum number of applicants required for us to run a Course is currently ten (10); or
2. the Course's teaching staff fall ill or for other reasons outside our control are unavailable to teach, and no suitable alternative(s) is / are available; or
3. an event which is outside our reasonable control, such as a fire or a flood, means that we have to cancel the Course.

We will notify you about cancellations or postponements as soon as possible. If the Course is cancelled or postponed then we will refund your Application Fee.

We will make every effort to provide the Course that you signed up for, but in the event that we have to make changes to the Course content, venue of the Course, Course tutor or faculty then we will let you know as soon as possible. If you do not want to continue with the Course as a result of these changes then you will have the right to cancel your enrolment on the Course and we will provide a full refund of the Application Fee.

b. Cancellation by the Applicant

Once you have accepted your place on the summer school and paid your application fee, you will not receive a refund should you choose to cancel. If you decide to cancel, please inform us as soon as possible so that your place may be offered to another applicant.

5. Course material and services and limitations on our liability

Payment of the Application Fee in accordance with these terms and conditions entitles you to the services announced on the Summer School website in relation to the Course and in the Course advertisement, and to access all parts of the Course you are enrolled on. The Application Fee do not include any other services, including but not limited to, subsistence during Course days, travel or accommodation costs or subsistence, insurance including health insurance or services or other costs that might arise prior to or during the Course. SOAS does not provide insurances to students, including travel, health or personal injury insurances.

Every effort is made to ensure that all information relating to the Course is correct at the time of going online or to print and SOAS will seek to deliver each Course in accordance with the description set out on the Course web page.

There may be situations in which it is desirable or necessary for SOAS to make changes in Course provision, either before or after enrolment, for example to incorporate new scientific findings into the course materials or to enhance the quality of teaching and learning. SOAS therefore reserves the right to:

- Make reasonable changes to the timetable, location or academic staff specified for a Course;
- Make reasonable changes to the content and syllabus of a Course when necessary.
- Use selected third party providers when delivering Courses off campus

We will make every effort to provide the Course that you signed up for, but in the event that we have to make changes to the Course content, venue of the Course, Course tutor or faculty then we will let you know as soon as possible. If you are significantly and adversely affected by these changes and do not want to continue with the Course as a result of these changes then you will have the right to cancel your enrolment on the Course and we will provide a full refund of the Application Fee.

The views expressed and information provided by faculty members and all Course materials provided to you during your Course are intended solely for the purpose of providing you with the services outlined above. They are not intended as advice to be relied on in other contexts, for example in connection with a business that you are running or are intending to run. The School does not accept any liability if you do rely on such views, information or materials for purposes other than the Course.

You are solely responsible for determining whether the Course is sufficient to meet your needs. SOAS makes no representation that completion of the Course will be recognised and/or awarded credit to by any other institution. Your home institution will decide how much credit, if any, they will award for your Course. SOAS does not award credit that may be used to contribute towards full-time degree programmes at SOAS, with the exception of those who are already enrolled on full-time degree programmes at the time of attendance of the Course.

6. Intellectual Property and Use of the SOAS brand

All materials provided by SOAS in relation to the Summer School (and any intellectual property rights in the same) are and remain the property of SOAS or, in case of materials belonging to third parties, of the relevant third party. SOAS will obtain the necessary allowances and licences for materials used that are not the property of SOAS.

Materials include all documentation or information provided by SOAS in relation to the Summer School, including but not limited to information provided on the SOAS website, the Summer School brochure, offer letters, course syllabi, reading materials, additional information and others.

Any use of any such materials and documentation that is not for the purpose of the summer school requires the prior written approval by SOAS in the form of an agreement.

Students must not use any such materials provided by SOAS for any other purposes than the ones set out in these terms and conditions. In particular but without limitation, use is not permitted for (i) any commercial purposes; (ii) as an official view or opinion of SOAS; (iii) presenting as if it were the student's own intellectual property; (iv) for dissemination of any parts of the SOAS Summer School without SOAS' agreement, in particular on social media.

Ownership of any intellectual property rights created by you will be determined by SOAS' standard policies in relation to the ownership and protection of intellectual property rights created by students.

Use of the SOAS brand, name and/or logo is not permitted without prior written agreement of SOAS in the form a contract.

7. Student behaviour and discipline

It is a condition of your agreement with us that you agree to comply with our applicable rules, policies and regulations: <https://www.soas.ac.uk/admin/governance/policies/> Those most likely to be relevant to Summer School Students are:

Student Charter

<https://www.soas.ac.uk/about/studentcharter/>

SOAS IT Policy

<https://www.soas.ac.uk/lis/policies/itpolicy/>

If you fail to follow these, or behave in a threatening or aggressive manner, or in a way that adversely affects other students, the School's employees or contractors, or bring the School into disrepute through your actions, or fail to comply with the requirements of Section 12 in relation to any accommodation provided to you under that section, you may be subject to the School's Student Disciplinary Procedure (<https://www.soas.ac.uk/students/disciplinaries/>), and we reserve the right to remove you from the Course or exclude you from the School's premises. In such cases, the Fees will not be refunded.

8. Course language

Unless otherwise indicated, all Courses are taught in English.

If your first language is not English, you are required to be proficient in written and spoken English and be able to participate in group discussions and presentations in English. We do not accept liability for any inconvenience or failure to attend if you lack the required English language proficiency given in the Applicant Information.

9. Visas: your responsibilities

You are responsible for obtaining the required visa that enables your participation in the Course and the rejection of a visa application by the British authorities does not affect the application of these terms and conditions including section 3 (payment of the Fees). We recommend that all applicants from outside the European Union check with the British Embassy or British High Commission regarding their visa requirements before applying.

In no circumstances will we issue documentation to support a visa application before receiving payment in full in cleared funds of the Fees from you. The cancellation and refund provisions in section 5 apply irrespective of whether cancellation is due to a failure to satisfy visa requirements in good time before the Course start date or other similar reason, such as failure to apply for a visa in appropriate time or delay with the visa process.

10. Limitation of Liability

Nothing in these terms and conditions will limit or exclude the liability of the School for:

1. Death or personal injury arising from our own negligence, or
2. Fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or
3. In respect of a liability not lawfully excluded or restricted, including your right to require repeat performance or a price reduction under the Consumer Rights Act 2015.

Otherwise, our liability to you with respect to the provision of a Summer School Course, the cancellation, postponement, or amendment of the Course, any negligence, any breach of these terms and conditions, or arising in any other way out of the subject-matter of these terms and conditions, is limited to the amount of Fees received from or on behalf of you in respect of the Course.

Further, our liability to you with respect to the provision of a Summer School Course, the cancellation, postponement, or amendment of a Course, any negligence, any breach of these terms and conditions, or arising in any other way out of or in connection with the subject-matter of these terms and conditions, will not extend to (i) any indirect losses or damages, or to any loss of profits, whether direct or indirect, even if we have been advised of the possibility of those losses or if they were within our contemplation; or (ii) any costs or expenses incurred by any person or organisation in connection with travel, accommodation, reservations or other arrangements.

Liability in respect of personal property and vehicles; you are responsible for arranging insurance

We do not accept any responsibility or liability in respect of any damage to or loss of any goods, vehicles or property of any kind brought onto or left at the School's premises whether by you or any other person and it is your responsibility (or your guest's) to take good care of your personal belongings. Any goods deposited with us are deposited at your own risk and without any obligation on us. We recommend taking out insurance, as we do not provide any insurance cover to you.

11. How we may use your personal information

The School will use your personal information in accordance with its data protection policy and statement on student data protection which are located here:

<https://www.soas.ac.uk/infocomp/dpa/policy/>

<https://www.soas.ac.uk/infocomp/dpa/student/>

12. Complaints

If there is a problem with the enrolment process, or if you have any questions or complaints about the services, please contact us. You can contact us by email at SSPIZS@soas.ac.uk. If you are a registered student of the School, you can lodge a complaint through our complaints handling procedure found on our website here: <https://www.soas.ac.uk/student-complaints/>.

13. Governing Law

These terms and conditions and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter of formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and you irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

14. Other important terms

Nobody else has any rights under this contract. This contract is between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms. Neither of us will need to get the agreement of any other person in order to end the contract or make any changes to these terms.

If a court finds part of this contract illegal, the rest will continue in force. Each of the paragraphs of these terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force and effect.

Even if we delay in enforcing this contract, we can still enforce it later. If we do not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these terms, or if we delay in taking steps against you in respect of your breaking this contract, that will not mean that you do not have to do those things and it will not prevent us taking steps against you at a later date. For example, if you miss a payment and we do not chase you but we continue to provide the Course(s), we can still require you to make the payment at a later date.

By submitting your application form, you agree that we may share this information, including your contact details, with the department or faculty providing the Course, and the designated tutor(s) for the Course and that you may be contacted by the department, faculty or designated tutor in connection with the Course. Your personal data will be dealt with in accordance with the privacy policy available here www.soas.ac.uk/infocomp/dpa/policy/gathering
