1. Agreement with SOAS

- 1.1. The purpose of these terms and conditions is to set out the basis for your relationship with SOAS when you apply for a SOAS Course.
- 1.2 Your agreement with SOAS is made up of these terms and conditions, your Offer, the Course Information and full payment of the admission fees, when applicable, as set out in section 3.
- 1.3 We are SOAS, a body incorporated by Royal Charter in England and Wales and an exempt charity. Our principal address is Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London, WC1H 0XG. Our registered VAT number is GB 233 674657.
- 1.4 You can contact us by writing to us by email at SSPIZS@soas.ac.uk.

Admission decisions are made by SOAS at their discretion.

2. Cancellations and Non-attendance

a. Cancellation by the School

We may only cancel a Course if:

1. there are not enough applicants enrolled on the Course and it is not viable for us to run the course. The minimum number of applicants required for us to run a Course is currently ten (8); or
2. the Course's teaching staff fall ill or for other reasons outside our control are unavailable to teach, and no suitable alternative(s) is / are available; or
3. an event which is outside our reasonable control, such as a fire or a flood, means that we have to cancel the Course.

We will notify you about cancellations or postponements as soon as possible.

We will make every effort to provide the Course that you signed up for, but in the event that we have to make changes to the Course content, venue of the Course, Course tutor or faculty then we will let you know as soon as possible. If you do not want to continue with the Course as a result of these changes then you will have the right to cancel your enrolment on the Course and we will provide a full refund of the Admission Fee, when applicable.

b. Cancellation by the Applicant

If you decide to cancel, please inform us as soon as possible so that your place may be offered to another applicant.

3. Admission

Applications for enrolment on the Course must be completed electronically through the online form.

There are a limited number of places available on the Course, meaning that not all applicants will be given an Offer. Applications will be evaluated based on eligibility criteria and overall quality.

Admission decisions are made by SOAS at its discretion. If we are unable to accept your application, we will inform you by writing to you at the email address you provided to us in your application. We will not give individual feedback.

If your application is accepted, you will receive an admission notification. SOAS covers travel, accommodation and visa expenses incurred by attendees.

All questions on the application form are to be answered truthfully. You confirm this upon submitting your application form. If you have provided us with information which is later found to be untruthful, SOAS reserves the right to reject your application or withdraw the acceptance of such an application at any time. No costs, including but not limited to travel arrangements, will be reimbursed as further detailed in 4. Course material and services and limitations on our liabilities and 8. Limitation of Liability, below.

All our admission decisions are final, but you do have a right to complain, details of how to make a complaint are set out in section 10. Complaints, below. We will not reimburse any costs, including but not limited to travel arrangements, as further detailed in 4. Course material and services and limitations on our liabilities and 8. Limitation of Liability, below.

4. Course material and services and limitations on our liability

Admission in accordance with these terms and conditions entitles you to the services announced in relation to the Course and in the Course advertisement, and to access all parts of the Course you are enrolled on. SOAS does not provide insurances to students, including travel, health or personal injury insurances.

Every effort is made to ensure that all information relating to the Course is correct at the time of going online or to print and SOAS will seek to deliver each Course in accordance with the description set out on the Course web page.

There may be situations in which it is desirable or necessary for SOAS to make changes in Course provision, either before or after enrolment, for example to incorporate new scientific findings into the course materials or to enhance the quality of teaching and learning. SOAS therefore reserves the right to:

- Make reasonable changes to the timetable, location or academic staff specified for a Course;
- Make reasonable changes to the content and syllabus of a Course when necessary.
- Use selected third party providers when delivering Courses off campus

We will make every effort to provide the Course that you signed up for, but in the event that we have to make changes to the Course content, venue of the Course, Course tutor or faculty then we will let you know as soon as possible. If you are significantly and adversely affected by these changes and do not want to continue with the Course as a result of these changes then you will have the right to cancel your enrolment on the Course and we will provide a full refund of the Admission Fee, when applicable.

The views expressed and information provided by faculty members and invited instructors as well as all Course materials provided to you during your Course are intended solely for the purpose of providing you with the services outlined above. They are not intended as advice to be relied on in other contexts, for example in connection with a business that you are running or are intending to run. The School does not accept any liability if you do rely on such views, information or materials for purposes other than the Course.

You are solely responsible for determining whether the Course is sufficient to meet your needs. SOAS makes no representation that completion of the Course will be recognised and/or awarded credit to by any other institution. Your home institution will decide how much credit, if any, they will award for your Course. SOAS does not award credit that may be used to contribute towards full-time degree programmes at SOAS.

Applicants must hold a valid passport and must not have previously had a UK visa application refused. Applicants are solely responsible for researching and completing the appropriate visa process. Upon acceptance to the Course, the Institute will provide an invitation letter to support the visa application

SOAS will not cover additional hotel services, checked baggage, seat changes, or other expenses not specified in these Terms and Conditions.

All materials provided by SOAS in relation to the Course (and any intellectual property rights in the same) are and remain the property of SOAS or, in case of materials belonging to third parties, of the relevant third party. SOAS will obtain the necessary allowances and licences for materials used that are not the property of SOAS.

Materials include all documentation or information provided by SOAS in relation to the Course, including but not limited to information provided on the SOAS website, social media, the brochure, offer letters, course syllabi, reading materials, additional information and others.

Any use of any such materials and documentation that is not for the purpose of the Course requires the prior written approval by SOAS in the form of an agreement.

Students must not use any such materials provided by SOAS for any other purposes than the ones set out in these terms and conditions. In particular but without limitation, use is not permitted for (i) any commercial purposes; (ii) as an official view or opinion of SOAS; (iii) presenting as if it were the student's own intellectual property; (iv) for dissemination of any parts of the SOAS Course without SOAS' agreement, in particular on social media.

Ownership of any intellectual property rights created by you will be determined by SOAS' standard policies in relation to the ownership and protection of intellectual property rights created by students.

Use of the SOAS brand, name and/or logo is not permitted without prior written agreement of SOAS in the form a contract. Participants consent to photographs and videos taken during the Course being used on the SOAS website, social media, and newsletters. Participants may opt out by informing the organiser at the beginning of the Course.

6. Student behaviour and discipline

It is a condition of your agreement with us that you agree to comply with our applicable rules, policies and regulations.

If you fail to follow these, or behave in a threatening or aggressive manner, or in a way that adversely affects other students, the School's employees or contractors, or bring the School into disrepute through your actions, or fail to comply with the requirements in relation to any accommodation provided to you, you may be subject to the School's Student Disciplinary Procedure, and we reserve the right to remove you from the Course or exclude you from the School's premises.

7. Course language

Unless otherwise indicated, all Courses are taught in English.

8. Limitation of Liability

Nothing in these terms and conditions will limit or exclude the liability of the School for:

1. Death or personal injury arising from our own negligence, or
2. Fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or
3. In respect of a liability not lawfully excluded or restricted, including your right to require repeat performance or a price reduction under the Consumer Rights Act 2015.

Otherwise, our liability to you with respect to the provision of a Course, the cancellation, postponement, or amendment of the Course, any negligence, any breach of these terms and conditions, or arising in any other way out of the subject-matter of these terms and conditions, is limited to the amount of Fees received from or on behalf of you in respect of the Course.

Further, our liability to you with respect to the provision of a Course, the cancellation, postponement, or amendment of a Course, any negligence, any breach of these terms and conditions, or arising in any other way out of or in connection with the subject-matter of these terms and conditions, will not extend to (i) any indirect losses or damages, or to any loss of profits, whether direct or indirect, even if we have been advised of the possibility of those losses or if they were within our contemplation; or (ii) any costs or expenses incurred by any person or organisation in connection with travel, accommodation, reservations or other arrangements.

Liability in respect of personal property and vehicles; you are responsible for arranging insurance

We do not accept any responsibility or liability in respect of any damage to or loss of any goods, vehicles or property of any kind brought onto or left at the School's premises whether by you or any other person and it is your responsibility (or your guest's to take good care of your personal belongings. Any goods deposited with us are deposited at your own risk and without any obligation on us. We recommend taking out insurance, as we do not provide any insurance cover to you.

9. How we may use your personal information

The School will use your personal information in accordance with its data protection policy and statement on student data protection which are located here:

Data Protection Policy

Student Data Protection Statement

10. Complaints

If you have any questions or complaints about the services, please contact us. You can contact us by email at SSPIZS@soas.ac.uk.

11. Governing Law

These terms and conditions and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter of formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and you irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

12. Other important terms

Nobody else has any rights under this contract. This contract is between you and us. No other person shall have any rights to enforce any of its terms. Neither of us will need to get the agreement of any other person in order to end the contract or make any changes to these terms.

If a court finds part of this contract illegal, the rest will continue in force. Each of the paragraphs of these terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force and effect.

Even if we delay in enforcing this contract, we can still enforce it later. If we do not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these terms, or if we delay in taking steps against you in respect of your breaking this contract, that will not mean that you do not have to do those things and it will not prevent us taking steps against you at a later date. For example, if you miss a payment and we do not chase you but we continue to provide the Course(s), we can still require you to make the payment at a later date.

By submitting your application form, you agree that we may share this information, including your contact details, with the school or college providing the Course, and the designated tutor(s) for the Course and that you may be contacted by the school, college or designated tutor in connection with the Course. Your personal data will be dealt with in accordance with the policy available here Data Protection Policy.
