

university of groningen

Delivering Inclusive Financial Development and Growth

ESRC-DFID Project (ES/N013344/2) Workshop

20 July 2018

University of Groningen

Research jointly supported by the ESRC and DFID

ESRC-DFID Project (ES/N013344/2) Workshop on Delivering Inclusive Financial Development and Growth

Venue:	Room A2 in the Academy Building (Broerstraat 5)
09:00-9:20	Coffee/Tea at the Bruinszaal, Academy Building
09:20-9:30	Welcome Address Robert Lensink, University of Groningen
09:30-10:30	Capital Flows and Productivity in Africa: The Angel is in the Details , by François A. B. Bationo, Stephany Griffith-Jones, Victor Murinde, Issouf Soumaré and Judith Tyson Speaker: Issouf Soumaré, Laval University Discussant: Ayse Demir, SOAS University of London Chair: Robert Lensink, University of Groningen
10:30-11:00	Coffee break at the Bruinszaal, Academy Building
11:00-12:00	Lessons from Emerging Economies for African Low Income Countries on Managing Capital Flows , by Stephany Griffith-Jones and Jose Antonio Ocampo. Speaker: Stephany Griffith-Jones, Columbia University & IDS Discussant: Ahmad Hassan Ahmad, Loughborough University Chair: Robert Lensink, University of Groningen
12:00-13:30	Lunch at Restaurant Serre, Academy Building
13:30-14:30	Increasing uptake of index insurance by delaying premium payments and marketing via social groups , by Robert Lensink Speaker: Robert Lensink, University of Groningen Discussant: Issouf Soumaré, Laval University Chair: Stephany Griffith-Jones, Columbia University & IDS
14:30-15:30	Mobile Money, Financial Inclusion and Inclusive Growth: A Cross Country Analysis with Specific Focus on Africa , by Ahmad Hassan Ahmad, Christopher Green, Fei Jiang and Victor Murinde Speaker: Ahmad Hassan Ahmad, Loughborough University Discussant: Victor Murinde, SOAS University of London Chair: Issouf Soumaré, Laval University
15:30-16:00	Coffee break at the Bruinszaal, Academy Building
16:00-17:00	How Does Financial Inclusion Affect Economic Growth, Income Inequality and Poverty? by Ayse Demir and Victor Murinde Speaker: Ayse Demir, SOAS University of London Discussant: Robert Lensink, University of Groningen Chair: Issouf Soumaré, Laval University
17:00	Closing speech by Robert Lensink, University of Groningen

Note: This workshop is also Part 5 of the Summer School -Financial Inclusion and Sustainable Growth, so the students are expected to actively participate in all the discussion. Papers are available before the session so that all participants can read them carefully beforehand and make quick constructive comments during the session. Hence, Chairs must be strict and work within the following time limits: Paper presenters – 30 minutes max; Student group discussion – 20 minutes max; Discussants – 10 minutes max, overall 60 minutes for each paper.