Application Notes and Scholarship Terms

References

You should give the names and addresses of your referees on your application form for record purposes.

All applicants are required to submit two references. The referees must be people who are familiar with your academic and/or professional work. We would expect at least one reference from your current, or most recent, place of study.

If your most recent academic study was more than five years ago, and you feel other experience is more relevant, work-related references only will be acceptable.

Referees should provide an opinion on the applicant's suitability for the programme of study as a scholarship student. References must be in English and must be provided by the scholarship application closing date.

References can be submitted directly by email to:

asianart@soas.ac.uk

Under the Data Protection Act, applicants have the right to see references supplied as part of their application.

English Language

Where an applicant's offer of admission to the SOAS-Alphawood Postgraduate Diploma in Asian Art includes an English language condition, any scholarship award will be conditional on having met that condition by 31st July 2024.

Candidate Assessment

- Candidates will be assessed by an Advisory Panel consisting of three members of SOAS staff.
- The panel will be looking at the applicants' degree results, references, professional experience, supporting statement, writing sample, and other relevant information.
- The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of a combination of academic potential, financial need, and impact of the scholarship on the applicant's academic and professional development.

Pre-Application Requirement

Applicants must already hold an offer for the SOAS-Alphawood Postgraduate Diploma in Asian Art (conditional or unconditional) prior to submitting a scholarship application.

Closing Date

All applications should be submitted before 23.59 (UK time) on Wednesday 12th June 2024. Scholarship applicants will be notified of the outcome of their applications by 28 June 2024.

Scholarship Terms

- The scholarship cannot be held along with any other major scholarship.
- The scholarship is specifically to support in-person study in London and online modules cannot be taken as part of the programme for the scholarship holder
- It is expected that the successful candidate dedicates themselves to the course full-time and will not undertake any further form of work or study during term-time.
- The successful candidate is expected to attend all teaching sessions.
- Continuation of the award will be conditional on satisfactory attendance and contribution, which will be assessed at the end of every term as well as monitored throughout.
- London residency during term-time is a requirement. The scholarship includes a stipend of £18,490 to cover accommodation and living costs, paid in three installments over the course of the academic year. We are happy to offer assistance in arranging accommodation for the scholarship recipient.
